Faculty, Staff and Students:

Our campus is often recognized as one of the most diverse campuses in the nation. With this distinction comes a responsibility and commitment to welcome all voices, all people.

A thoughtful and open community such as ours must help guide open dialogue about complex, and sometimes contentious, issues.

While there may be strong opinions about an issue on both sides, we are brought together by our shared concern for creating an inclusive and engaged environment for our students, faculty and staff.

The UIC community is fortunate to benefit from learning and collaborating with people from a variety of backgrounds and cultures to enrich our everyday experiences.

We will continue to foster an atmosphere of openness -- where our most important learning experiences come from, where each person is valued for their contributions, and where everyone has the opportunity to realize their full potential.

Sincerely,

Paula Allen-Meares
